Most agencies wing client onboarding and then wonder why people cancel at month 3.

This is the exact 60-day fulfillment system we run at the agency for 90%+ of clients. It covers every task, every email, every Loom, every internal handoff — from the minute the sales call ends to the Day 60 retention check-in.

The whole system is built around three things:

1. Actually getting results fast. The first 60 days are by far the most complex. After that, it's just content and links on repeat. But in those first 60 days, you're running audits, fixing tech issues, publishing content, and building links all in parallel. This lays out exactly what happens and when.

2. Overcoming buyer's remorse. When someone spends thousands of dollars, the first feeling they get is regret. You'll client feel like they made the right decision before doubt sets in.

3. Making them happy to pay that third invoice. The first payment is easy — they just signed up. The second is usually fine — it's only been a month. But by the third payment, they've been with you for two months and the rank map might not look dramatically different yet. The best results usually hit at the end of month 3. So everything in this system is designed to build enough goodwill and momentum that they stick around long enough to see them.

Watch the walkthrough above, then grab the tracker below. It's the same one we use internally — 66 tasks across 8 phases, with timing, ownership, scripts, and notes for every step.
