How to Conduct a GBP Audit for New Clients

In this lesson, I walk through our complete Google Business Profile audit process using a real client (RightWay Driving School) as an example. This is the first step we do for every new client, and I'll show you exactly how we approach it.

What you'll learn:

- Categories & Services (the most important part): How to use GMB Everywhere's Category Finder to discover all relevant categories for a business, and how to evaluate which ones actually make sense to add
- Organizing services with AI: How to take related services and use Claude to organize them semantically under the right categories—creating a clean list you can review with your client needs to be filled out—description, opening date, contact info, service areas, amenities, and more

- Special hours (commonly missed): Why this needs to be updated regularly since Google only lets you enter upcoming holidays a few at a time

- Posts, products & photos: Checking posting frequency, understanding when to use products vs. services, and ensuring enough photos are uploaded
- Review responses: Why copy-paste responses are a missed opportunity and how review responses can be used to insert relevant keywords for services the reviewer used

By the end, you'll have a systematic process for auditing any GBP and identifying exactly what needs to be optimized.
